DESCRIPTION

Creamy Milk Chocolate, Ripe Orange, So Smooth!

In Belgium, Old St. Nick delivers a bundle of sticks to those who have behaved badly throughout the year. Just to be safe, we suggest foregoing cookies and leaving Santa a pFriem Belgian Christmas Ale. Brewed with coriander in a rich Dubbel base, its toffee aromas and hints of fresh, ripe orange will leave a milk-chocolaty velvet coat on Santa's tongue and guarantee that you won't be getting sticks this year.

HISTORY

Brewed in honor of the Christmas season, these strong Belgian beers are intended for holiday cheer. They are robust and rich, balanced by gentle hopping and accentuated by adding spices to the boil. These Abbey inspired beers are complex and creamy, to be shared with family and friends.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Stewed meats, duck, root vegetables, hearty salads, and chocolate.

TASTING NOTES

Deep ruby red with dark undertones, while supporting a thick off-white foam. Toffee aromas dance with fresh ripe orange. Creamy milk chocolate covers the tongue, but is lifted by zesty lemon. Velvet coats the mouth finish while saying "so smooth".
